Mrs. Clyde Shivers,
Dublin, Ga.

Dear Clyde:

Your letter came to Durward two or three months ago regarding the "Greene" family records as to the Revolutionary War. At that time, we were unable to furnish you the information, for the reason that we had not secured a complete line. However, we have now secured a complete record, and all of us are joining the D.A.R.'s and S.A.R.'s; and I beg to herewith enclose you a copy.

I trust you are well, and with my usual sincere regards, I beg to remain

Yours most cordially,
